PRESS RELEASE

Prime Minister Skerrit to Participate in World Governments Summit in Dubai

Roseau, Dominica- February 2, 2026: Prime Minister Hon. Roosevelt Skerrit will participate in the World Governments Summit in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, where he will contribute to high-level discussions on global investment trends and the future of tourism in an evolving international landscape.

The summit runs from February 3-5, under the theme, 'Shaping Future Governments.'

Prime Minister Skerrit is scheduled to speak on two featured roundtables: The Future of Investments and The Future of Tourism. His participation will highlight Dominica's priorities as a small island developing state, with emphasis on resilient and sustainable investment, climate-smart infrastructure, renewable energy and inclusive economic growth.

The World Governments Summit brings together heads of government, policymakers, private sector leaders and international institutions to explore innovative solutions to global challenges and shape the future of governance and development.

In Prime Minister Skerrit's absence from the state, Hon. Dr. Irving McIntyre, Minister for Finance, Economic Development, Climate Resilience and Social Security, will act as Prime Minister.
