PRESS RELEASE

Prime Minister Skerrit in Washington DC for US–Caribbean Dialogue

Roseau, Dominica- October 15, 2026: Prime Minister Honourable Roosevelt Skerrit is in Washington, D.C., to attend the US-Caribbean Dialogue today, October 15, 2026.

Convened by the United States Department of State, the meeting brings together Heads of CARICOM member states and senior U.S. officials to discuss cooperation in security, energy, trade, investment and disaster management.

Prime Minister Skerrit's participation provides an opportunity to advance Dominica's and the region's priorities and highlight areas for practical partnership, including renewable energy, agriculture, tourism, infrastructure and disaster preparedness.

The discussions will also address regional security challenges, including illicit firearms trafficking and transnational organised crime.

Dominica remains committed to constructive engagement with the United States and its Caribbean partners to improve livelihoods, strengthen resilience and create opportunities for its people.

In the Prime Minister's absence from the state, Minister for Finance, Economic Development, Climate Resilience and Social Security, Hon. Dr. Irving McIntyre is serving as Acting Prime Minister.
