

Share your story and celebrate Dominica-China Friendship!

遇见中国

Discover China - Essay Competition

Participants are invited to write about their experiences studying in China, attending short-term training programmes, or living and working in China. Entries may also draw on knowledge of China acquired through other channels.

Essays may explore China's history and culture, its economic and social development, China-Dominica cooperation, the friendship between the two countries, or other relevant topics. Participants are encouraged to share their personal observations, genuine feelings and unique perspectives.
